1. Policy Objectives

Ooredoo Kuwait is committed to high standards of transparency, integrity, compliance and accountability. The Whistleblowing Policy aims to provide means through which employees, contractors, customers and suppliers could, in good faith, report any activity that violates laws, regulations, policies, decisions, instructions or the Company's code of Business Conduct & Ethics.

This Policy establishes the mechanism for the receipt, analysis and processing of reports of violations of laws, regulations, policies, decisions, instructions or Company's Code of Business Conduct & Ethics. In addition, the policy also covers the issues related to the deficiencies in the system of internal controls, violation of confidentiality of the company information and fraud attempts or any errors that may have a negative impact on the company, employees, customers, shareholders, investors or others in general.

The policy also aims to:

- Help develop a culture of openness, accountability and integrity.
- Encourage staff to report suspected wrongdoing without fear from retaliation.
- Provide staff and other stakeholders with guidance as to how to raise their concerns.
- Enable Management to be informed at an early stage about acts of misconduct.
- Inform the Management of irregularities at an early stage.

2. Confidentiality and Protection

Whistleblowing reports are kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation. Ooredoo Kuwait is committed to protect the person who reports in good faith from retaliation.

3. Scope

This Policy applies to all employees of the company (full-time, part-time and temporary), in addition to external parties, including agents, contractors, suppliers, customers and generally anyone who has business relationships with the Ooredoo Kuwait.

This policy governs the process of reporting and investigating inappropriate behavior and illegal activities in the company. It does not apply to company policies and procedures regarding the individual employee's grievances or complaints relating to job performance, terms and conditions of employment as these matters fall within the jurisdiction of the Grievance & Investigation Committees in accordance with grievances management process as provided in the Human Resources Policy of the company.

To ensure active implementation of this policy, the Company will publish this policy on its intranet and company websites. The company will also communicate this policy on an annual basis.

Additionally, the reporting channel email will be added in the Request For Proposal “RFP in case of any third party wishing to report concerns regarding fraud, bribery, corruption or other unlawful or unethical behavior connected with the Company

  - b. Form an Investigation Committee comprising of at least 3 members but not more than 5.

In all cases, the investigation results/reports shall be subject to the oversight of the ARC.

- The OK CAE or the Investigation Committee (as the case maybe) may involve other relevant parties as deemed appropriate.
- The OK CAE or the Investigation Committee (as the case maybe) may request and ask for the data and documents deemed necessary and appropriate, from relevant sources (divisions/departments of the company) and invite those whose presence is needed. All such necessary support shall be provided by the relevant quarters without any limitation.
- Staff members are required to cooperate with duly authorized investigations taken up under this policy as approved by the ARC.
- During the investigation, the person who reported the violations/misconduct may be, if required by the relevant forum, :
  - a. Invited for interview to ascertain his/her areas of concern.
  - b. Asked to make a written statement.
- Depending on the nature and seriousness of the complaint/report, the person(s) against whom the allegations are made may be suspended while investigations are undertaken after notifying the Chairman of the Audit & Risk Management Committee. For this purpose, processes as embedded in the Company's Human Resources Policy shall be followed.
- The OK CAE or the Investigation Committee (as the case maybe) shall:
  - a. Suspend or interrupt the investigation at any time if the whistleblowing report is determined to be unfounded; and a report shall be raised to the ARC for decision.
  - b. If it is established that the purpose of the report was to malign/defame an employee or division/department, this may result into necessary disciplinary/legal action against such person(s) as per final decision of the ARC.

7 Notification of the Results

At the end of the investigation process, the OK Chief Audit Executive or the Investigation Committee (as the case maybe) shall:

- Submit the results of the investigation to the Audit & Risk Management Committee
- According to the decision of the ARC, the OK Chief Audit Executive shall:
  - a. Notify the CEO of the results of the investigation and ARC decisions
  - b. Notify the interested parties and whistleblower of the results of the investigation.
  - c. Coordinate with the concerned division(s)/department(s) to address violations and misconduct reported.
  - d. Update the complaints register with the Audit & Risk Management Committee decision/level of investigation/actions undertaken.

8 Follow up Activities

The OK CAE shall monitor the progress of the implementation of the Audit & Risk Management Committee decisions arising from the results of the investigations.

9 Safekeeping of Documentation

The OK CAE shall be responsible for safekeeping and disposal of the related documentation (hard copy or electronic).

All the documentation shall be kept in accordance with the Company's document retention policy.

10 Approvals and Amendments

This policy and any subsequent amendments need to be endorsed and recommended by Ooredoo Kuwait Audit and Risk Management Committee and finally approved by the Board of Directors. The ownership of this policy will remain with Chief Audit Executive.
